

Global Experience™ : Generation Fair Trade

Thursday, November 5, 2015

8:30 – 5:00 PM

Fairleigh Dickinson University, Hennessey Hall

285 Madison Ave.

Madison, NJ 07869

Arrive promptly at 8:30 AM. Bus leaves for United Nations at 9:30 AM for an 11:30 AM Tour. Afternoon activities at Fairleigh Dickinson University begin at 2:30 PM.

Afternoon Briefing Objectives:

- Expose students to innovative socially responsible companies and organizations that support fair trade locally and globally.
- Students learn about the practical solutions to today's fair trade issues by engaging in a small group activity facilitated by a college student.
- Focus of the activity will be less on lecture and more on team-based learning objectives, which encourage all team members to think critically and use their resources.

Proposed Agenda and Day-of-Activities

08:30 AM	Students arrive and Register
08:45 - 09:00	Breakfast Buffet (Meet with Chaperons)
09:00 - 09:20	Welcome: Admissions Officer, Fairleigh Dickinson University Diana Cvitan, Director, Office of Global Learning
	Global Experience & United Nations Tour Michele Joseph, Student Global Ambassador Project (SGAP) George Martin, Urban League of Morris County Aida Bush, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Pi Theta Omega Chapter
09:20 - 9:30	Bathroom break
09:30	Bus leaves for UN (Snacks and water on bus)
10:45	Bus arrives at United Nations (Security)
11:30 – 1:00 PM	Tour & Visitor Center
1:10	Bus leaves for FDU –Students eat their bag lunch and snacks
2:15	Return to FDU (Bathroom Break)
2:30 – 3:15	Panelists Introductions and Presentations – Mini Show Q & A
3:15 – 3:25	Break
3:30 – 4:00	Small group table discussion on fair trade facilitated by a FDU student (FDU student facilitators)
4:00 – 4:15	Students Share Their Ideas with group
4:20 – 4:45	Wrap-up, Pledge, Thank You and Survey
4:45 - 5:00	Sign-out and Parent pick-up (Questions? 862 242 0226)